

HAROLD F. LINDER

Dear Allen,

I thought your speech, for which many thanks,
before the trustees of the Practising Law Institute fine.
I am happy as well that you put in a modest plug or two for the Agency.

You gave them much food for thought about a very knotty problem and I hope that some of them will be sufficiently inspired to come back with a good idea or two.

With very warm regards,

Yours as ever,
